

David Acer

ACTRA/WRITERS GUILD/ACADEMY OF CANADIAN CINEMA & TELEVISION

David Acer is a Gemini-award-nominated writer and comedian who has done crazy things on dozens of television shows around the world, like protesting outside a train station dressed as a giant penny while inviting people to lie down on the tracks to “see how it feels,” and limping to the couch for a talkshow interview with a Denver Boot on his leg because, as he put it, he had “a few unpaid j-walking tickets.” He has appeared on a multitude of international specials (BBC England’s The Secret World of Magic, NHK Japan’s F.I.S.M. 2000, Discovery’s Grand Illusions), a plethora of Canadian comedy classics (CBC’s Just For Laughs, CTV’s Comedy Now, CHCH’s Comedy at Club 54), and an array of American prime-time standards (A&E’s Comedy on the Road, ABC’s America’s Funniest People), not to mention live at The Riviera in Las Vegas, The Magic Castle in Hollywood, and 10 times at the Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal. But younger viewers are more likely to recognize him as “Doubting Dave” from Discovery Kids’ Mystery Hunters, which garnered him two Gemini nominations (the Canadian equivalent of the Emmys) for Best Writing in a Children’s Non-Fiction Series, and the publication of his new book, “Gotcha: 18 Amazing Ways to Freak Out Your Friends.” Check out video and audio clips at www.davidacer.com.

"Nuts! He's a cross between Robin Williams and Howie Mandel!"

The Halifax Chronicle-Herald

"Brilliant!...a hilarious observational/situational stand-up!"

Hour Weekly

"A force in stand-up!"

CBC Newsworld

"Acer is a comedian who's going places."
